Staff or Resource

Lauren C. (GQ Spring '19 Consultations)

APPOINTMENT LIMITS: Appointments must be between 30 minutes and 1 hour in length.
LOCATION: LFSC 1425
 Lauren is a Ph.D. student in Applied Statistics working under the supervision of Dr. Zhiwei Zhang. She is interested in pharmaceutical applications of statistics including clinical trials and causal inference. Her work focuses on applying machine learning methods to problems involving treatment effect comparisons between one population – or sub-population – and another. For her research, Lauren also utilizes causal inference, non- and semi-parametric methods, and mathematical statistics / probability theory. Lauren initially became interested in statistics because of its collaborative potential and loves to get to know other people's research. She has TAed a variety of statistics courses and is comfortable with most undergraduate- and graduate-level statistics course material. In her free time Lauren enjoys spending time with her husband and their cats, going to the opera, and playing DnD with friends.

Consultation types offered: Basic Statistics, Advanced Statistics, Nonparametric Methods, Mathematical Statistics and Probability Theory, Experimental Design, Data Mining, Machine Learning, LaTeX, Stan, SAS, R

Meet Online?

No. Meet face-to-face at the center.

Yes. Schedule Skype appointment.
 We offer consultations through Skype if circumstances make coming to campus impossible. To request a Skype appointment, contact Christina Trujillo at christina.trujillo@ucr.edu for Graduate Writing Center consultations and Dr. Yelda Serin at yelda.serin@ucr.edu for GradQuant consultations. You MUST obtain prior approval before selecting a Skype consultation. Otherwise, your appointment will be cancelled! If you choose a Skype appointment, please include your phone numbers into the Appointment Form and how often you have your documents to be reviewed.

- Read consultant's bio and consultation types they offer to make sure you are making an appointment with the right consultant.

Show Details

Dear Yelda Serin,

You have successfully made an appointment on Monday, June 17, 2019 between 11:00am and 12:00pm. This appointment will take place in the GradQu 1425. Bring your student ID with you as UCR identification is needed to utilize GradSuccess resources.

Please remember that appointments begin at 10 minutes after the hour or half hour (e.g., 1:10pm or 1:40pm). We recommend that you arrive a few minutes early to get checked in.

You can make, cancel, or modify appointments by logging into the scheduling system at ucr.mywconline.com.

Please note that we have a strict No Show policy. Cancellations must be made more than 2 hours in advance. Students who miss three appointments without cancelling will forfeit access to GradQuant consultations and workshops for the remaining of the quarter. Additionally, if you arrive more than 15 minutes late for your appointment, it will be canceled and counted as a no-show.

Please do not reply to this email. If you have any questions or concerns, please email GradQuant@ucr.edu.

Best,
GradQuant Staff

This e-mail was sent through the WCONLINE® scheduling and recordkeeping system. To opt out from receiving these types of messages in the future, log in to <https://ucr.mywconline.com> and then select 'Update Profile & Email Options' from the welcome menu.

- After you make an appointment, you will receive a confirmation email.
- You may cancel or modify your appointments by logging back into WC Online and double-clicking on your appointment.
- Note that cancellations must be made more than two hours in advance.

To sign up for a workshop, choose “GradSuccess Workshops” calendar for the quarter that you want. Then follow the same steps as making a consultation appointment.
